

22

of a day and night before of the In the geare of our Lord God (according to the tyme of the year) interchangingably haue put to the myns, euer of the said dayss bidental by meselfe, in the City of London during this said termes, correlation finding unto his said Apprensite, in that Mistris full Apprensite he shall behalfe him as a faythfull waite to his said Maister, nor absent him but to lese whiche some goods or otheris during the said termes. He shall not play at the Cardes, nor the goodys of his said Maister, nor lend them unto bedone of other, but shal kepe to his said Maister his fayrenes, his lauffull commandementes next following to be fully compleat and ended: Di viduum (after the manner of Apprensite) to his myns to the said Cittie and England for the County of Lancastur.
In witness whereof the parties abouenamed have set their handes and signatures.

His Indenture witne

Rowland Hudson of doth put himselfe Apprenized to of London, to learne his Art: And day of the Day and terme of yeeres from the sayd Apprensite, his said Maister faithfully shall ser He shall do no damage to his sayd Maister, nor ser ing to his sayd Maister of the same, He shall not wa committ fornication, nor contract matrimony with unlawfull games whereby his sayd Maister may ince of his sayd Maister he shall reueher buy nor se stlers service day nor night unlawfully. But in all the aister and all his during the sayd terme. And the sa be best meanes he can shal teach and instruct with an odging, and all other necessaries, according to the cu rrence of all and singular the sayd covenants, at the ag resence. In witness whereof the parties abouenamed day of

(of England) One thousand Six hundred and the Lord King I A M E S &c.